PORTS BLOCKED WITH ICE.

St. Johns, Feb. 15.—A heavy Arctic ice floe now blockades this port and the neighboring coast line, shutting out much ocean shipping and enclosing several steamers. Advices from the northern coast report that immense floes, with barges therein, are driving south. Ice also extends over the Grand Banks to Cape Race.

BIG FISH FARES.

Three Good Ones at This Port This Morning.

Sch. Senator Found Big Fishing on Green Bank.

There are some extra fine trips here this morning. Sch. Miranda, Capt. Charles Frost, arrived from Georges with a splendid fare, one of the very best Georges handline trips of the whole winter, 25,000 pounds of cod and 5000 pounds of halibut.

Capt. Frost, who is one of our leading Georges skippers, says that the weather has been very bad. He also says that the codfish caught on this trip are about the best he ever saw, great large fish and in fine order.

Sch. Ella M. Goodwin, Capt. James Goodwin, arrived from La Have Bank with a big trip of 80,000 pounds of fresh fish, all caught Thursday and Friday. Despite the big fleet in Boston, prices are good, so Capt. Goodwin will make a big stock which his well known hustle and push deserves.

Sch. Senator, Capt. Nathaniel Greenleaf, came in around the Point during the thickest of the storm early this morning from Green bank, and it seemed like old times to hear that she had 40,000 pounds of halibut, beside a few flitches and 6000 pounds of codfish.

The Senator has been on a long trip, having bucked up against all the hard weather on Grand Bank. Before coming home Capt. Greenleaf decided to have a try on Green Bank and the above splendid trip is the result. The weather was hard but the crew got a chance for just three short sets. Fish were found plentiful, some of the dories getting five dory-loads on their trawls. Had they had good weather, the fare would have been a record breaker. Capt. Greenleaf reports speaking schs. Margaret and Madonna on Green Bank.

BIG ODD-SHAPED LOBSTER.

Two Provincetown Fisherman Haul Up Monster on a Trawl.

Joseph Thomas and Louis Ramas, two of the crew of Sch. Emilia Enos of Provincetown caught a lobster on Saturday that would win the blue ribbon for its combined size and peculiarity. It was hauled up on a trawl four miles northeast of Highland light. It is the most quaintly modelled lobster ever landed at Provincetown. Its bow end has the torso of a prize-fighter, its nether part resembles the waspish shape of the victim of tight lacing. In fact, the forward part of it of gigantic size, study, bulldoggy, powerful, while, singularly enough, that portion extending aft from the main gangway (speaking in sailor parlance) dwindles rapidly to insignificant proportions. Eighteen and one-quarter pounds is the weight and 30 1-2 inches the length of this crustacean brought in by the Enos, measured from the crotch of the tail to the extremities of the out-stretched claws.

Feb. 16.

Scotch Fishermen for Canso.

Canso, N. S., is interested in the proposed movement to import a contingent of Scotch fishermen to instruct them in the Scotch method of catching herring to be accompanied by another contingent of girls, experts in dressing fish. It is intended to create a fishing station at that place which will be the exact counterpart of the stations in Scotland, and which are famed the world over for their products in that line. It is rumored that a petition has been started asking the federal government to take some action in inducing five hundred men to come.

St. John's Blocked by Arctic Ice.

A St. John's, N. F., despatch says that a heavy Arctic ice floe now blockades this port and the neighboring coast line, shutting out much ocean shipping and enclosing several steamers. Advices from the northern coast report that immense floes, with bergs therein, are driving south. Ice also extends over the Grand Banks south to Cape Race.

PHENOMENAL FIGURES.

Georges Handline Cod Fare Brings Half Dollar Advance.

Trip of Sch. Miranda Brings $5.50 and $4 50 per Cwt.

The fare of salt Georges handline cod of sch. Miranda sold to Cunningham & Thompson at the exceptionally high price of $5.50 per hundred weight for large and $4.50 for mediums. This is an advance of 50 cents per hundred weight on both sizes, over the last sales. It has been many years since this price was paid for a handline Georges fare and some of the older dealers say it is among the very highest ever paid in their recollection.

BIG STOCK.

Sch. Senator Gets $3700 on Her Halibut Trip.

Sch. Senator, Capt. Nathaniel Greenleaf, stocked $3700 on her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $85. This is the best halibut fare of the season, and the share would have been larger, but for the fact that the vessel bought a Canadian license and refitted.

Good Stock.

Sch. Ella M. Goodwin, Capt. James Goodwin, stocked $2100 on her recent haddocking trip.
